

How can 2-1-1 help you...

North Carolina

NC 211 CALLER STORY

Liz and her child were on the verge of homelessness and didn't know where to turn. Liz called NC 211 to ask about resources that could help them find a safe place to live.

In Catawba County,

2-1-1 can connect you to:

- Greenleaf transitional housing for women with children - Safe Harbor,
- Emergency housing for families - Family Care Center,
- Residential services for people with disabilities - Partners Health Management.

NC 211 CALLER STORY

Arthur is an 86-year-old veteran who uses a wheelchair and critical medical supplies that require electricity. He fell behind on his energy bill and called NC 211, hoping there were local resources that could help.

In Catawba County,

2-1-1 can connect you to:

- Help with utilities and rent - Greater Hickory Cooperative Christian Ministry,
- Emergency assistance - The Salvation Army of Greater Hickory,
- Veterans assistance - NC Dept. of Military and Veteran Affairs.

NC 211 CALLER STORY

The NC 211 call specialist was able to provide a few local resources that could help furnish Sherry's home on a small budget. When she hung up the phone, Sherry was energized and ready to start making her place a home.

In Catawba County,

2-1-1 can connect you to:

- Food pantry, clothing closet, household items - Highways and Hedges,
- Mobile Food Pantry, furniture - New Hope Homeless and Poverty Ministry,
- Clothing and household items - Eastern Catawba Cooperative Christian Ministry.

If you or someone you know needs help, dial 2-1-1 or visit nc211.org to find local resources.

NC 211 is the United Way of North Carolina health and human services information line supported by local partners like the Catawba County United Way.

Catawba County United Way